

REPEAT PERFORMANCE

Digital Literacy Around the World: Helping Clinicians Know What to Do

IALP Child Language Committee Online Resources
October 1 – December 31, 2022

A gift for clinicians and researchers from the IALP Child Language Committee Program

For no-cost access to prerecorded presentations available on demand from October 1 to December 31, 2022 register at <https://forms.gle/BuZZ1okR66kwGCbP6>

DIGITAL LITERACY (40 min each session)

Theme: The opportunities and challenges of digital literacy for children and adolescents who struggle with language

1. Nickola Wolf Nelson (Emerita Western Michigan University, USA): Combining Digital Literacy and Writing Process Instruction to Foster Language Development (K-12.)
2. Carol Westby (Bilingual Multicultural Service, USA): Digital Education for 21st Century Children.
3. Barbara Ehren (Formerly University of Central Florida, USA): Teaching Adolescents Who Struggle with Language How to Identify Fake News in Digital Environments.
4. Sharon Moonsamy and Anniah Mupawose (University of the Witwatersrand, South Africa): Digitalised Literacy: Writing as a Tool for Thinking from the Context of a Development Country.

A. Online live chat with the digital literacy presenters (45 min): 7 December, 2022 12:00 pm GMT. Zoom link will be sent to registered participants.

Brought to you by:

Cyprus
University of Technology